Hello everyone,

Happy New year!. First of all a massive thank you to ALL of you for your hard work in making Rushmoor Christmas Angels 2022 an absolute success. Secondly a huge welcome to those of you for whom this will be your first "Rushmoor Christmas Angels" Newsletter. Welcome to the team, it is great to have you on board. If you haven't done so already do consider joining the "RCA knitters" Facebook group. This is a closed group for all those who are part of the "Rushmoor Christmas Angels Team" and a great place to pick up tips and share ideas.

It was great to see the "Rushmoor Christmas Angels" feature in the Christmas edition of "Prima" magazine. Well done Ivy.

Over the past few years Facebook has changed somewhat and, for whatever reason it is not always easy for people to post pictures of the angels they have found direct to the FB page. So far as I can see our FB page settings are all correct. Some people therefore have sent photos by direct message lots of angels have been this year even if pictures as per usual I am guessing waiting to be "found" and appearance over the next

Just as in previous years interesting places. Quite a from Rushmoor. One angel of Shipston on Stour, "classy" and went to "finder" wrote this - "I was Waitrose carpark. I've been came out of Waitrose and which sadly FB doesn't allow me to then share to the page. Be assured given homes over Christmas again did not appear on the page.....and there are still a few angels still hopefully these will put in an few weeks.

our angels found their way to many few angels ventured a long way travelled to the Warwickshire town another angel was a bit more Stratford upon Avon where its reduced to tears this morning in having a miserable few months, I something caught my eye on top of a Christmas tree. I looked, read the label and thought that this angel was there waiting for me. Thank you so much whoever put it there.....I really needed that".

I could share many other stories like this one where the angels YOU have all created have changed someone's life this Christmas time. One angel however decided not to travel a great distance and only ventured as far as the "Golden Lion pub" in Aldershot. Even so I am sure she still had an impact on someone's Christmas ⁽ⁱ⁾
